4. OLD BUSINESS

A. Updates on Equity Review

Equity Review seems to be on hold. We discussed that we know that there is information out there. Monica brought us up to date regarding what the communications committee is reaching out to people now to see what data is already available or has been collected in the past. Monica mentioned to Heather that she has an email contact with the Downtown Partnership. Heather brought up an email from the town looking for proposals looking for a strategic planner for development. Heather read some of the email to us. <http://www.mansfieldct.gov/Bids.aspx?BidID=128>

Virginia is also waiting for further direction from Glenn about how to proceed with the Equity Review and documentation.
