Re: Amendments to Motor Vehicle Traffic and Parking Ordinance

Subject Matter/Background

Attached please find proposed revisions to the Motor Vehicle Traffic and Parking Ordinance. The objectives of the proposed amendments are to accomplish the following:

- Section 182-3A - revised to clarify that on-street parking is prohibited during all hours of the day year at any time of the year when there is any accumulation of snow or ice on the roads
- Section 182-4A – revised at the advice of iParq, the Town's ticketing vendor and Central Parking, the parking management company for Storrs Center, to double the fees on unpaid parking tickets as an additional enforcement tool. This is a common practice in many municipalities.
- Section 182-4B – revised to reinforce existing ordinance language regarding towing and to assist in the enforcement process
- Section 182-5 – revised as a result of new section 182-4B

§ 182-11. Notice of violation.

At any time within two years from the expiration of the final period for the uncontested payment of fines, penalties, costs or fees for any alleged violation under any motor vehicle parking ordinance or regulation adopted pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes, § 7-148 or §§ 14-305 to 14-308, inclusive, except for Article 11 of Chapter 152 of this Code of the Town of Mansfield, the Ordinance Regulating Residential Rental Parking, the Town may send notice to the motor vehicle operator, if known, or the registered owner of the motor vehicle by first class mail at their address according to the registration records of the Connecticut Department of Motor Vehicles. Such notice shall inform the operator or owner:

- A. Of the allegations against the cited person and the amount of the fines, penalties, costs or fees due;
- B. That the cited person may contest liability before a Parking Violations Hearing Officer by delivering in person or by mail written notice of demand for a hearing to the Office of the Mansfield Resident State Troopers at the address specified in the notice within 10 days of the date thereof;

§ 182-13. Admission of liability.

If a person who is sent notice pursuant to § 182-11 wishes to admit liability for an alleged violation, the cited person may, without requesting a hearing, pay the full amount of the fines, penalties, costs or fees in person or by mail to the Collector of Revenue at the address specified in the notice. Any cited person who does not deliver or mail written notice of demand for a hearing within 10 days of the first notice provided for in § 182-11, above, shall be deemed to have admitted liability, and the Office of the Mansfield Resident State Troopers shall certify such person's failure to respond to the Hearing Officer. The Hearing Officer shall thereupon enter and assess the fines, penalties, costs or fees provided for by any applicable law or ordinance and shall follow the procedures set forth in § 182-14, below.

§ 182-14. Hearing procedure.

- A. Any cited person who requests a hearing shall be given written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing. Such hearing shall be held not less than 15 days nor more than 30 days from the date of the mailing of such notice, provided the Hearing Officer shall grant upon good cause shown, any reasonable request by any interested party for postponement or continuance. An original or certified copy of the initial notice of violation issued by a police officer or other issuing officer shall be filed and retained by the Town, be deemed to be a business record within the scope of General Statutes, § 52-180, and be evidence of the facts set forth therein. The presence of the police officer or issuing officer shall be required at the hearing if the cited person so requests. A person wishing to contest their liability shall appear at the hearing and present evidence in their own behalf. A designated town official, other than the Hearing Officer, may present evidence on behalf of the Town.

- B. If the cited person fails to appear, the Hearing Officer may enter an assessment by default against the cited person by default upon a finding of proper notice and liability under the applicable statutes or ordinances. The Hearing Officer may accept from the cited person copies of police reports, Department of Motor Vehicles documents and other official documents by mail and may determine thereby that the appearance of such person is unnecessary. The Hearing Officer shall conduct the hearing in the order and form and with such methods of proof as the Hearing Officer deems fair and appropriate. The rules regarding the admissibility of evidence shall not be strictly applied, but all testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation. The Hearing Officer shall announce a decision at the end of the hearing. If the Hearing Officer determines that the cited person is not liable, the matter shall be dismissed and the decision of the Hearing Officer entered in writing accordingly. If the Hearing Officer determines that the cited person is liable for the violation, said officer shall forthwith enter and assess the fines, penalties, costs or fees against such person as provided by the applicable law or ordinances of the Town.

§ 182-15. Notice of assessment and judgment.

If such assessment is not paid on the date of its entry, the Hearing Officer shall send by first class mail a notice of the assessment to the person found liable and shall file, not less than 30 days or more than 12 months after such mailing, a certified copy of the notice of assessment with the clerk of the appropriate court, which is now the Superior Court for the Tolland Judicial District, together with the appropriate entry fee. The certified copy of the notice of assessment shall constitute a record of assessment. Within such twelve-month period, assessments against the same person may be accrued and filed as one record of assessment. The clerk shall enter judgment in the amount of said record of assessment and court costs against the cited person, in favor of the Town. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Connecticut General Statutes, the Hearing Officer's assessment, when so entered as a judgment, shall have the effect of a civil money judgment and a levy of execution on such judgment may issue without further notice to such person.

§ 182-16. Appeal.

A cited person against whom an assessment has been entered pursuant to this article is entitled to judicial review by way of appeal. An appeal shall be instituted within 30 days of the mailing of notice of such assessment by filing a petition to open assessment, together with an entry fee in an equal amount to the entry fee for a small claims case pursuant to General Statutes, § 52-259, at the appropriate court, which is now the Superior Court for the Tolland Judicial District, which shall entitle such cited person to a hearing in accordance with the rules of the judges of the Superior Court.
