

Raising Readers Parent Club

Reading with your children is one of the most important things you can do as a parent to help them succeed in school...and it's a wonderful way to build a loving relationship with them!

The Town of Mansfield is hosting a free parent club, led by certified instructors, to discuss how to raise children who love to read.

8 Mondays, March 21 to May 16 (no class April 18, school vacation)

5:30-6:30 PM at the Mansfield Senior Center

Refreshments and child care provided

Each participant will receive a free book to share with his/her family each week, and participants who attend each session will receive a free hardcover book at the end of the program.

Topics include:

- How to choose a book for your children
- How stories about emotions can help a child's emotional health
- How to balance reading with TV and video games
- How to best take advantage of our local library

Please sign up and direct any questions to Maggie Ferron, Early Childhood Services Coordinator, by March 1 (860 429-3338, ferronmb@mansfieldct.org). Preference given to Mansfield residents, though spots unfilled will be offered to interested non-residents.
