Minutes DRAFT

1. Call to order

The meeting was called to order at 7:04

2. Roll Call

OSPC members: Jim Morrow (Chair), Vicky Wetherell, Ken Feathers, Michael Soares, Quentin Kessel

Parks Advisory Committee members: Sue Harrington, Tom Harrington

Town Staff Present: Jennifer Kaufman

3. Review of Minutes

The Minutes of February 20, 2018 were approved. (moved Soares, seconded Morrow)

4. Opportunity for Public comment

No members of the public were present

5. New Business

- Connecticut Bird Atlas

The group discussed how the upcoming Connecticut Bird atlas may provide potential to acquire data pertinent to the town and town preserved land parcels for use in supporting additional open space initiatives and developing management plans for existing preserved lands. It was unclear if the data would be sufficiently detailed to provide useful information about individual parcels.

- Bicentennial Pond Management

Town staff reminded the group that last year there was some public concern about the use of herbicides for aquatic vegetation management at Bicentennial Pond. To address this concern and increase public outreach the Town is working with Northeast Aquatic Research to develop a more comprehensive management approach for the pond. The group discussed the pond management proposal and made recommendations to town staff. It is anticipated that this proposal would lead to developing a more informed strategy for sustainably managing the pond.

6. Continuing business

- Simpson Property

Town staff reported that the next steps are to complete the survey, which will include boundary marking, and lose on the property.

The group discussed the public hearing and determined that it would be useful for future acquisitions to include in a discussion and recommendations, in addition to how a parcel meets the enumerated criteria for conservation land, a more specific evaluation of how the acquisition relates overall to the town plan and goals for conservation land.

The discussion evolved when it was called to the group's attention that at a recent school building project outreach meeting one presentation mentioned using town open space for a new school.

The group discussed this in relation to the terms in the Town Plan of Conservation and Development (POCD) and concluded that the use was technically correct, in referring to undeveloped land, but could be misleading because much open space in town ownership is protected from development.

The term "conservation land" is used in the POCD for parcels with development restrictions and the group agreed that further discussion about the best terminology to use in communication is needed.

- Potential consolidation of Committees

The group agreed that the practice of holding joint meetings of the Open Space Preservation Committee and the Parks Advisory Committee seemed to be working well and it would be appropriate to put on a future agenda the topic of potential formal consolidation of these committees and how such a committee would be best able to continue to meet all the needs of the town.

7. Executive session in accordance with CGS section 1200(6)(D)

- Sale or purchase of Real Property
- Discussion of possible site selection

Entered executive session 8:21 PM (moved Feathers seconded S. Harrington)

Exited executive session at 8:54

Voted with one abstention to ask town staff to draft a memo summarizing recommendations, to be communicated to the Town Manger in executive session (moved T. Harrington seconded Wetherell)

8. Communications

Communications were noted.

9. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 8:57 (moved Kessel, seconded Feathers)

ZONING REGULATIONS AND DESIGN GUIDELINES:

A CHAPTER 5, OPEN SPACE DISTRICTS

L. Painter noted that while the Commission has previously reviewed Chapter 5, it was reconsidered by the Regulatory Review Committee as a result of Conservation Commission's correspondence regarding additional protections of rivers and streams. As a result of these concerns, the Regulatory Review Committee is proposing changing the name of the Flood Hazard District to the Riparian Corridor Overlay District. This change includes reorganization and clarification of regulations and procedures, expands the purpose to address both flood hazard and water resource protection and, establishes a riparian buffer requirement of at least 100 feet on each side of a watercourse located within this overlay district. Members discussed that parking may only be allowed in the farthest 20% of the buffer. L. Painter will provide a graphic to further explain the riparian buffer and how it is measured.

B. CHAPTER 3, USES

L. Painter noted that this Chapter has been updated based on the Commission's last discussion. Staff continues to work on language regarding permitted by right versus zoning permit. L. Painter provided locations for each district included in the Use Tables. Some additional changes to this Chapter include an updated list of prohibited uses and a new process for establishing changes in use and determinations of whether unlisted uses are permitted or prohibited. L. Painter provided a summary of the Principal Use and Accessory and Temporary Use Tables. Some of the items discussed by members included: potential elimination of zones; where medical marijuana dispensaries may be located; changes to where Adult Establishments may be located; removal of personal business purpose in the Accessory Commercial Uses Table; further allowance of food trucks; and the potential for a change in the number of unrelated individuals that can live together in the SC-SDD. The Regulatory Review Committee will review the Tables and update as necessary.

Town of Mansfield
CONSERVATION COMMISSION
Meeting of 28 March 2018
Conference B, Audrey P. Beck Building
(draft) MINUTES

Members present: Mary Harper, Quentin Kessel, Erin King (Alt.), Scott Lehmann, John Silander, Michael Soares. Members absent: Neil Facchinetti, Julia Rogers (Alt.). Others present: Dan Duque (UConn PIRG), Jennifer Kaufman (Wetlands Agent), Charles Vidich.

1. The meeting was called to order at 7:01p by Chair Michael Soares. In the absence of one member, Alternate Erin King was entitled to participate fully in the business of the meeting. The agenda was reordered to accommodate Dan Duque.

2. The draft minutes of the 21 February 2018 meeting were approved as written.

3. Bee City campaign. According to Dan Duque, UConn has been designated a Bee Campus by Bee City USA, which aims to promote awareness of the importance of pollinators and to protect them by preserving and enhancing habitat and encouraging best practices in pesticide use. He would like Mansfield to join with UConn in this effort by achieving Bee City status.

According to the Bee City USA Resolution Template, this would require a Council resolution (1) endorsing the aims of Bee City USA and (2) establishing a Committee responsible for:

- a. Celebrating National Pollinator Week.
- b. Installing and maintaining an “authorized Bee City USA street sign in a prominent location.”
- c. Maintaining a web page at the Town’s website.
- d. Developing and implementing a “program to create or expand pollinator-friendly habitat” in Mansfield.
- e. Including a commitment to the Bee City USA designation in Mansfield’s “Comprehensive Plan” {= Plan of Conservation and Development?}.
- f. Reviewing the “Comprehensive Plan” for ways to enhance protection of pollinators.
- g. Applying annually for renewal of Bee City designation and “paying the renewal fee based on population.” Mr. Duque did not know what this fee would be.

In the ensuing discussion, Commission members indicated support for the general aims of this program, but not much enthusiasm for the Commission’s functioning as the Committee required for Bee City designation. There are various things that could be done in Mansfield on behalf of pollinators through garden clubs, school education projects, and the Farmer’s Market. It was suggested that people at UConn take the lead here in reaching out to the community to supplement whatever UConn is doing to make the campus pollinator-friendly. Campus resources include Rich Miller (Director of UConn’s Office of Environmental Policy), Dave Wagner (EEB), and Donna Ellis (Cooperative Extension, Integrated Pest Management).

4. Bicentennial Pond study. In response to a request from Kaufman, Northeast Aquatic Research has submitted a proposal to develop a management plan for Bicentennial Pond after thorough study of its current condition; its price is $4,642. Recent efforts to manage vegetation and sediment have not been informed by such a study and in consequence have not been very effective. The Commission agreed that the Town needs a science-based plan for managing this resource and is prepared to assist in educating the public about eutrophication, aquatic invasives, and other management issues.

5. Fenton River Wells. In August 2017 UConn applied for – and was granted – permission from DEEP to pump up to 0.213 million gallons of water per day (mgd), if needed, from Well D in the Fenton River well-field during September and October, regardless of streamflow. This ‘diversion’ could occur even when the upstream Wells A, B, & C must cease pumping because the river is flowing at 3 cfs or less in the vicinity of Well A. The justification offered by UConn (and apparently accepted by DEEP) is that there is a “natural gain” in Fenton River flow – from tributaries, wetlands, and groundwater seepage – of at least 0.213 mgd between Well A and Well D in low-flow periods.

Charles Vidich raised some questions and concerns about this.

- How good is the estimate of “natural gain”? Just what is its basis, and what monitoring will be done to assess its accuracy, should Well D be utilized during low-flow periods?
- Assuming that withdrawing 0.213 mgd maintains a flow downstream of Well D that is no less than the river’s flow at Well A, is that enough for healthy aquatic life? If the flow is 3cfs at Wells A and D, do we know it is no less than that anywhere in between? What if the flow at Well A is only 2 cfs?

Mr. Vidich also wondered why UConn rather than the Connecticut Water Company (CWC) applied for this permission, inasmuch as the agreement with CWC to supply water from the Shenisit Reservoir was advertised as getting UConn out of the water business.

Rich Miller will attend the Commission’s May meeting. Soares will let him know that he can expect to be asked about the new authorization to pump from Well D.

6. Draft zoning regulations. Kaufman urged Commission members to study Chapters 12 to 14 (Site design & development, Landscaping, Lighting) of the draft zoning regulations in advance of April meeting, which Director of Planning Linda Painter will attend. However, she would appreciate feedback before then, so Commission members are encouraged to communicate questions or comments directly to her as soon as possible.

Kaufman also indicated that material on streambelt zoning (in the form of a Riparian Corridor Overlay District) is being added to Chapter 5; she will send the draft to Commission members. The Commission unanimously agreed (motion: Kessel, Silander) to approve Soares’ draft letter to the PZC on streambelt zoning, to be forwarded by Linda Painter. It is attached.

7. Conservation Easement monitoring. Seven conservation easements have now been monitored. Reports need to be completed using Google Forms.

8. Wetland Agent’s report. A broken main at Eastbrook Mall discharged water and sediment into Sawmill Brook on 2/11/18, resulting in a Notice of Violation. The situation has been rectified.

9. Replacement for Grant Meitzler. Alternate Erin King is interested in replacing Grant Meitzler as a full member. Another individual has expressed interest in joining the Commission and could be appointed as an alternate.

10. Adjourned at 8:58p. Next meeting: 7:00p, Wednesday, 18 April 2018.

Scott Lehmann, Secretary, 29 March 2018.

March 19, 2018

To: Planning & Zoning Commission
From: Conservation Commission
Subject: Streambelt zoning in Mansfield
CC: Linda Painter, Jennifer Kaufman

Summary

As new zoning regulations for Mansfield are drafted, the Conservation Commission recommends that a regulation be included to establish an overlay zone protecting streambelts along designated Town waterways.

Background

In 2017, the concept of “streambelt zoning” was brought to our attention by Charles Vidich, a former Mansfield resident (now Ashford) and career land-use planner with experience developing programs and regulations for watershed protection. At our meeting of 9/20/2017, Mr. Vidich discussed streambelt zoning (SBZ) and shared his research on its applications in CT. Accordingly, that evening we passed the following motion:

“Because stream-belt zones have more ‘regulatory teeth’ than case-by-case determinations though an IWA, the Commission recommends that the Town establish a stream-belt zoning regulation using a district overlay zone. Such a zone would:

- Allow for site-specific and non-specific land-use controls in a stream belt/watershed;
- Enable control of impervious surfaces and canopy cover near streams;
- Enable lower density development where it is most appropriate; and
- Reinforce ‘case by case’ protections of the IWA.”

Application of Streambelt Zoning and Overlay Zones

Currently, 34 towns in CT have zoning regulations designed specifically to protect streambelts and the functions and values they possess; towns in MA and NH and the state of VT have adopted similar policies and overlay zones. Generally, streambelt protection is achieved by prohibiting or limiting land uses and modifications within a continuous setback from the edge of wetlands or watercourses. Such a zone in Mansfield would apply to designated areas that meet the Town’s definition of a streambelt, and new regulations can identify streambelts by name or designate them via criteria expressed in the regulation.

Streambelt regulations have not been controversial in CT municipalities where they have been adopted. When properly implemented, the success of SBZ can be attributed partly to efforts taken to assess the impact of SBZ on potentially affected properties.

Purpose of SBZ

Streambelt zoning is needed because it establishes protective measures for areas that are not protected by regulations concerning inland-wetlands & watercourses and flood hazard zones. Riparian areas and river corridors contain valuable ecological systems that are broader than the wetlands, watercourses, and floodplains they contain.

SBZ protects water quality and the natural resources and processes that maintain its quality. Naturally vegetated areas near water reduce the incidence and severity of erosion and sedimentation. They slow stormwater flow and improve infiltration, which recharges groundwater and reduces the delivery of pollutants – including excess nutrients – to surface waters.
