

Community School of the Arts at Lenard Hall

Lenard Hall Community School of the Arts

The Community School of the Arts programs have delivered over 40 years of music, visual art, and performance instruction in Mansfield, and are now housed in the recently renovated Lenard Hall building located at 450 S. Eagleville Road. Through the generosity of principal donors John and Jean Lenard, and others including the Jeffrey P. Ossen Family Foundation, the Lenard Hall facility was made possible. Mansfield Parks and Recreation is committed to providing high quality instruction in the arts, offering students of all ages and ability levels professional, affordable instruction in both performing and visual arts. Come learn, grow, and create with us!

Electronic Music Production - FREE 30 Minute DEMO! (Ages 10+)

Want to learn to make beats? You've come to the right place! Schedule a FREE one-on-one demo lesson focusing on producing instrumental soundtracks! Learn to create drum patterns and compose melodies for genres including Pop, Rock, Hip Hop, EDM, and more. The best part is no experience or equipment is required; though it is very helpful if students have access to a computer (iPads and iPhones are also great alternatives if a computer is not available.) Electronic production is the primary topic but lessons can be customized to include other related skills, such as recording live instruments and vocals. Small group lessons can also be arranged. If you enjoyed your demo, submit an individual music lesson request form to get started!

Instructor: Walker Suib has been practicing Electronic Music Production (his favorite activity) for the last 6 years. He makes beats for singers and rappers, but also enjoys sound design, sound engineering, and songwriting.

Location: Lenard Hall

Demo Fee: FREE! – Email Recreation Coordinator, Bethany Cologna at ColognaB@mansfieldct.org to schedule your free 30-minute demo now!

Fee: Free 30-minute demo lesson. Can register for 30, 45, or 60-minute individual lessons (see above rates).
