V NEW! Virtual Family Music Jam (Ages 0-5)

This is a half hour interactive virtual music class for young children and their families. Using engaging songs, basic percussion instruments, and musical storybooks, Bobbi Giardina will lead children and their families through developmentally and age appropriate music and movement experiences, via Zoom. Children will be encouraged to interact for some parts of the class, but for some portions participants will be muted - so you can feel free to make as much noise as you want while singing along with your little one!
